

You never tasted something like this

Philippine Food

This time we invited a lady from Philippine.
She taught us 3 Philippine dishes and she told us about her home country Philippine.

June 12th is the Independence day of
The Philippine.

The eat Pineapple d celebrations. It is very colorful (red, yellow, green and brown) sharpen our appetite.

Nilagang (cook for long time) Baboy (Pork) are delicious too! Manok is chicken.
Those food she introduced are unfamiliar to us but to be surprised it was delicious.

Menu

PININYAHANG MANOK
pineapple, chicken
NILAGANG BABOY
pork and vegetables soup
RICE
MAJA BLANCA Dessert

Spanish influenced dessert MAJABLANCA, we put toppings of coconuts and almond by ourselves, that was fun. Ethnic costume is like the one Mrs. Imelda Marcos wore with drapes.

Everybody felt Philippine much closer now..
